Our publicity team is always looking to increase the profile of the island of Ireland in Great Britain. We regularly assist print, radio, and TV media and increasingly focus on bloggers to encourage them to feature significant content and generate valuable endorsement for the island of Ireland. From festivals to the freshest of farm foods, and from hotels to unique B&Bs, we are always seeking ideas and stories and we welcome good quality newsworthy content and images to inspire GB based media to feature the island of Ireland.

So please get in touch with one of our colleagues below with your media-friendly stories and or visit our media room website to see the type of content that we are looking for
