Amour will take place in Cascais, Portugal and is the perfect setting for you to be connected with the world's most high-end romance travel specialists and destination wedding planners from all over the world. This event is perfect for luxury hotels, castles inbound wedding planners or DMC's that all specialize in the romance segment or are looking to grow this segment. Through our carefully created program we ensure that you meet with the right buyers for your business, in the perfect setting to be able to develop long lasting relationships with them. As well as having 40 pre-scheduled, pre-selected meetings with our romance travel buyers, you will also take part in destination discovery activities and gala dinners in the evening which offers you unlimited access to network with buyers that you may not have meetings with but may still have business for you.
